Flagler Museum Hosts Director's Annual Luncheon

PALM BEACH, FL - On April 28, 2025, more than 100 guests attended the Flagler Museum's Director's Annual Luncheon. Attendees listened to an engaging presentation by the Museum's recently appointed Executive Director and CEO, Amanda Skier. Ms. Skier provided a review of accomplishments over the prior year and outlined some projects and goals for the coming year.

The presentation included a recap of the elaborate Dining Room restoration project completed in September 2024, during which Ms. Skier recognized and thanked Thomas S. Kenan, III, and Dyson and Peter Stockman, for their generous support of the restoration project.

Ms. Skier also announced that this summer the Museum will take steps to make the history of the Whitehall Hotel more visible. These efforts include expanding the Museum's tour path to the hotel addition and laying the groundwork for its restoration. This will include restoration of what is currently called the West Room, formerly known as the "Palm Court", and the Lake Room, known as the "Loggia" during the hotel era, 1925 to 1959. Ms. Skier stated, "By interpreting these periods and telling the stories of those who have enjoyed and cared for the home, we can continuously expand its significance and relevance to the community... I look forward to sharing this journey with all of you , and welcoming you back often, as we continue to restore, discover, and reimagine this remarkable place."

The Henry Morrison Flagler Museum

When it was completed in 1902, Whitehall, Henry Flagler's Gilded Age estate in Palm Beach, was hailed by the New York Herald as "more wonderful than any palace in Europe, grander and more magnificent than any other private dwelling in the world." Today, Whitehall is a National Historic Landmark and is open to the public as the Flagler Museum, featuring guided tours, changing exhibits, and special programs. The Museum is located at One Whitehall Way, Palm Beach, FL 33480.

The Museum is open from 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday, and noon until 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $28 for adults, $14 for ages 6 - 12, and children five and under are free. Guided tours, audio tours, printed self-guide brochures and the Flagler Museum Audio Tour app are all complimentary with Museum admission. Audio tours and self-guide brochures are available in English, Spanish, French, German and Portuguese.
