Flagler Museum to Host Bluegrass in the Pavilion Concert

PALM BEACH, FL - The Flagler Museum will present its annual Bluegrass in the Pavilion concert on Saturday, April 26, 2025, from 3:00 to 5:00 pm. The Kody Norris Show will return for a second concert and Authentic Unlimited will perform for the first occasion in the Pavilion.

Following completion of the Flagler Kenan Pavilion construction project, the Flagler Museum's Bluegrass in the Pavilion concerts began in 2005, when the Museum President at that time, Mr. George Matthews - a big Bluegrass music fan - invited his friend Mr. Kyle Cantrell to offer assistance with booking the biggest names in Bluegrass music to perform during the new event. Mr. Cantrell was the iconic voice of Bluegrass Junction for nearly two decades and has been instrumental in bringing many musicians to the fore of the Bluegrass music genre.

The Kody Norris Show is continuing the path of bringing Bluegrass Music to both core fans of the genre and new audiences. They are a youthful voice in Bluegrass music, and insiders awarded them seven IBMA & SPBGMA Nominations and wins in 2024. The band brought home trophies for Entertainer of the Year, Instrumental Group of the Year, Album of the Year, Song of the Year, and Band (Overall) of the Year. Adding to the wins, Mary Rachel Nalley-Norris was named Fiddle Performer of the Year and Josiah Tyree won Banjo Performer of the Year. The Kody Norris Show's album "All Suited Up," charted at #7 on the Billboard charts. This talented group, made up of frontman Kody Norris, Josiah Tyree, Mary Rachel Nalley-Norris, and Charlie Lowman, finds themselves with a growing legion of fans craving the comfort that comes from their retro look, but equally craving dynamic instrumentation and thought-provoking lyrics – all of which can be heard throughout their epic new album "Rhinestone Revival".

Authentic Unlimited is a bluegrass/gospel group that is composed of Jerry Cole (bass and vocals), Stephen Burwell (fiddle), and Eli Johnston (banjo and vocals); all being former members of Doyle Lawson & Quicksilver's last touring band before he retired. They are joined by mandolin extraordinaire, Jesse Brock and vocal powerhouse, John Meador to form a tight machine that is taking the music industry by storm. Authentic Unlimited recently won Vocal Group of the Year and New Artist of the Year at the 2023 IBMA Bluegrass Music Awards as well as the 2023 SPGMA Gospel Group of the Year and Vocal Group of the Year.

Bluegrass in the Pavilion tickets are $45 per person and may be purchased online through the Museum's website at www.FlaglerMuseum.us/programs/bluegrass-in-the-pavilion, or by calling 561-655-2833 ext. 10.

The Henry Morrison Flagler Museum

When it was completed in 1902, Whitehall, Henry Flagler's Gilded Age estate in Palm Beach, was hailed by the New York Herald as "more wonderful than any palace in Europe, grander and more magnificent than any other private dwelling in the world." Today, Whitehall is a National Historic Landmark and is open to the public as the Flagler Museum, featuring guided tours, changing exhibits, and special programs. The Museum is located at One Whitehall Way, Palm Beach, FL 33480.

The Museum is open from 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday, and noon until 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $28 for adults, $14 for ages 6 - 12, and children five and under are free. Guided tours, audio tours, printed self-guide brochures and the Flagler Museum Audio Tour app are all complimentary with Museum admission. Audio tours and self-guide brochures are available in English, Spanish, French, German and Portuguese.
